GOV. JOHNSON'S FINAL PRE-ELECTION WORDS

Says Union Looks to California to Defend Progressive Cause That Had Its First Great Uplift Here

By GOV. HIRAM JOHNSON

Men and women who have made and won good fights in our state need no eleventh hour reminder of the supreme importance to humanity of the nature of the contest that is to be decided next Tuesday.

Were I in California, I would not presume to undertake, through speeches or otherwise, to enlighten our people on the Progressive principles which they themselves have formulated and the success of which is so vital to them, not only as patriotic Americans, but as Californians, with a rightful pride in the leadership in this movement.

And yet, finding myself 3000 miles away in these closing days of the contest, forced with the utmost regret to prolong my absence by the requirements of a sacred duty, I cannot forbear to say just a final word to the people of California.

We have been striving in the nation to lighten the burden of the heavy laden; to uplift the under man; for a living wage for women; for equal opportunity for little children; for exact and equal justice for those who plow and those who toil; for those who have not, as well as for those who have; for the prevention of human wastage, so long forgotten, and for the repair of the household depletion and for the government for humanity.

No state better understands this cause than California. The cause has come out of our Western home and in a brief period has become the hope and inspiration of millions of our countrymen.

The fulfillment of this cause and its aspirations are with but one party, the Progressive party.

Mr. Wilson cannot embrace this cause or carry it to successful fruition because of his doctrine of state's rights. He denies the power of the federal government to aid in the cause. We strenuously assert that the United States government not only has the power but upon its rests the duty to carry out our program of social and industrial justice. So if this cause has gripped Californians in this campaign as it has the citizens of Illinois, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Indiana, New England and New York, California can vote but one way—for the party of the cause.

The whole Union now looks to California to vindicate the great human issues that have now become synonymous with the spirit of the west. Within California's own borders these issues had their genesis and from California came the first great impetus that has made our human gospel a national issue. The ardor first aroused in our own state on the far coast of the Pacific, has swept the continent in ever-increasing volume until today the states of the Atlantic are as earnestly and spontaneously progressive as is California itself.

It is appropriate that the reactionaries of the Republican party in California, hypocritically pretending they have been disfranchised, but really following the design of the reactionaries all over the nation, should be against us.

Here in New York, Mr. Barnes, the reactionary Republican boss, and Mr. Murphy of Tammany Hall, are united in a common purpose, at all hazards to defeat Roosevelt; and in every state the bosses and reactionaries of all parties pursue the same course. This cause of ours is abhorrent and fatal to all who in the past have exploited the government and made mockery of popular rule.

Let California, like every free state in the Union, on Tuesday speak in no uncertain terms.

ROOSEVELT WILL WIN CALIFORNIA ON PROTECTION ISSUE SAYS TAFITE

Taft Committee man, Mulvane of Kansas makes one of the best campaign arguments and forecasts in the Los Angeles Times as to the way and why California will vote for Theodore Roosevelt tomorrow. He says:

"With the knowledge that Republicans have no electoral ticket in California and believing that a very large proportion of these Republicans will vote for Wilson rather than allow Roosevelt to be victorious in the state the Republican managers in Chicago have frankly admitted the probability that the electoral vote of the state would be given to Wilson. Many sagacious politicians, however, have wondered whether it would not be better to let Roosevelt have California's thirteen electoral votes, inasmuch as Wilson might be elected by the aid of California should the contest prove to be close. California is so dependent upon the protective system of government that it is difficult to imagine how the state can even indirectly aid in Democratic success. The products of the state are mostly luxuries—orange, lemons and other fruits, wines, hops, etc. Its products must be sold in the Eastern markets.

The cost of freight to the East makes it imperative that there shall be a duty upon articles which California produces in order to keep the East from being flooded with the products of Mediterranean Europe. The present tariff gives California prosperity. A Democratic tariff for revenue only would ruin the state. It is to be remembered also that every ship that comes into San Francisco or any other Pacific port is loaded down with the products of Asiatic manufacture and these importations are increasing. California cannot compete with the extreme low cost of

ELECTORAL VOTES NEEDED TO ELECT A PRESIDENT

(By E. A. Dickson)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Pluralities do not elect in the nation-wide vote for president. There are 531 votes contributed by the various states to the electoral college, and the federal constitution requires that the successful candidate must poll a clear majority of that number.

If no candidate receives 266 votes, therefore, the election will be thrown into the house of representatives. In the house the vote is taken by states, each state having one vote, and a majority vote is necessary to elect. As a consequence there probably would be no election, as none of the three leading candidates would be able to muster the necessary majority.

It would then be up to the senate to select the nation's executive from the two highest vice presidential candidates.

Nation Awaits the Verdict
For all practical purposes last night concluded the greatest and most dramatic political struggle since Lincoln's time. The fight has been made, and an eager nation awaits the verdict.

Originally, it was assumed that the Progressive movement would make little headway anywhere outside of the west and middle western states. Governor Johnson, for instance tells of his own misgivings on undertaking a Progressive campaign through the tier of New England states.

But Governor Johnson declared at the conclusion of his trip that he found in New England exactly the same enthusiasm for Progressive principles that he had encountered far out on the Pacific slope.

WHITE HOUSE SEEKERS TO HEAR RETURNS AT HOME

Johnson Too Far From Home to Vote—Drys Begin Work for 1916

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—National headquarters of the big political parties are deserted today. All the minor employees left Saturday and only the chiefs remain. Some of the headquarters are already boxing furniture. President Taft will receive election returns at Cincinnati; Gov. Wilson at Princeton; Col. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay. Gov. Johnson will be the only candidate unable to vote.

Fisher Will Also Lose Vote
Secretary of the Interior Fisher will not vote on Tuesday. He has discovered that his business had so occupied his mind that he neglected to register.

Mrs. Taft, accompanied by her daughter, Helen, arrives here tomorrow as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Hilles, according to announcement, to hear the election returns. After the election, Mrs. Taft will return to Washington to rejoin the President there.

Taft Talked on Way
CLEVELAND, Nov. 4.—President Taft made several stops en route to Cincinnati today. He spoke here briefly, urging everyone to vote. The President added: "I am not here to make a political speech, because your minds are all made up now." The President will reach Cincinnati this evening.

THOSE BELIEVING IN PROTECTIVE TARIFF FOR OUR PRODUCTS, VOTE FOR REPUBLICANS ONLY

Voters of Orange County, Men and Women:—Tomorrow you will make your choice between candidates of the several parties for the different offices to be filled. The two dominant parties are the Democratic and Republican. The Democratic has the support of disloyal reactionary Republicans, who in convention assembled declared by resolution, which was unanimously adopted, that the election of Woodrow Wilson meant business paralysis, soup houses, suffering and want. The Republican party is supported by the loyal Republicans, Progressives, Independents and voters of all parties who believe in a square deal and clean politics. That the reactionaries are disloyal to the Republican principles and consequently to the interests of the citrus, nut, and sugar beet growers, is evidenced by the fact that they are now advocating the support and election of a man who claims that the protective tariff is a cancerous growth on the body politic and should be cut out, and the election of whom would bring about the very condition that they themselves condemned. We urge you in the strongest possible terms to support and vote for the election of electors pledged to vote for Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram W. Johnson, for president and vice president of the United States. These electors are headed by A. J. Wallace and are found in the upper left corner of the ballot. We also urge you to vote for S. C. Evans for Congress, J. N. Anderson for State Senator, and Hans V. Weisel for Assembly, and in their districts, H. E. Smith of Santa Ana, Supervisor First District, and Wm. Schumacher, of Buena Park, Supervisor Third District, all of whom will, if elected, be true to the interests of their constituents as well as to the S. J. JACKMAN, Chairman,
W. H. THOMAS, Secretary,
Republican County Central Committee.

AID GREAT CAUSE OF PEOPLE SAYS COL. ROOSEVELT IN FINAL APPEAL

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Nov. 4.—As his final appeal on the eve of election Colonel Roosevelt gave out this statement last night:

"I wish to appeal as strongly as I can to the men and women of this country, to all good citizens throughout the Union, and ask them to support this great Progressive movement for righteousness and for fair dealing. 'The Progressive movement is in the interest of every honest man and woman in the land, and therefore, we have the right to ask that all good citizens without regard to their past political affiliations shall stand with us in this fight for clean politics, and for the square deal in industry.

"Only the Progressive party has the real vital issues of the day. Not only are both the old parties boss-ridden and privilege-controlled, but they are wedded to the dead issues of a vanished past, and they show not the slightest conception of the needs of the day or of the steps now urgently necessary to take if grave disaster to the Nation in the future is to be avoided.

Old Parties Blind to Issue
"The great forces now at work, social and industrial, are such as were utterly undreamed of half a century ago. Yet the leaders of both the old parties today are still attempting the futile feat of trying to meet these new conditions by worn-out governmental expedients and by appeal to little formulas and dogmas which had a certain use before the days of steam and electricity, before the days of concentrated and tremendous development, but which are now as utterly useless as the flintlocks of the continental soldiers would be in modern warfare. 'The Progressives and the Progressives alone, have seen that it is utterly useless to hope (and to our minds entirely pernicious to desire) that a great people living under the forms of a political democracy and skilled by universal education will long continue to tolerate in economic matters the reign of an industrial oligarchy, the enthronement of privilege and a permanent and widespread inequality of opportunity.

"Neither in the platform of the old parties, nor in the utterances of their candidates and leaders do we see the slightest sign of any appreciation of this great fundamental issue. The Progressive, on the contrary, thoroughly appreciates that this is the issue and with courage and common sense and in a spirit of kindness to all our people have faced the problem and outlined the necessary first steps toward its solution.

"We intend to use the forces of government to secure justice and fair play between man and man, man and woman, not only in the political but in the industrial world. We recognize that it is the duty of all of us so to shape conditions as to secure favorable economic surroundings for the average man who is honest and industrious.

"We do not regard economic well-being as the all and all in life, but we regard it as the indispensable foundation—the foundation which it is necessary to secure for all our peoples, and then upon it we intend to raise the superstructure of a higher life.

"Our opponents, Democratic and Republican alike, have not ventured to particularize as to the action they advocate whether as regards the trusts, the tariff, the welfare of the farmer or the welfare of the wage worker.

"Their utterances have been mere generalities which can mean anything or nothing, according as men choose to interpret them.

"We, on the contrary, have set forth

GENERAL WAR IN EUROPE MENACES

Turkey's Practical Surrender Makes Situation More Grave Than Ever

BULGARS FIGHTING AT CONSTANTINOPLE'S GATE

Casualties of War Enormous—
Moslem Troops Decimated—
—Scutari Yet Resists

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The danger of a general European clash is believed to be more serious than ever through Turkey's admission of defeat. British ambassador Lowther at Constantinople telegraphs that the port is begging the powers to act quickly. Berlin dispatches say the Germans are wildly excited over British naval preparations. The newspapers have agreed to say as little as possible about the matter, hoping to prevent the war. German diplomats are not surprised that Turkey has asked for peace, and regard that international danger is at hand. Vienna dispatches say: "Turkey's surrender has precipitated a crisis which weighs heavily on this country."

TERRIFIC FIGHTING ON AT GATES OF CONSTANTINOPLE

VIENNA, Nov. 4.—Terrific fighting between the Turks under Nazim Pasha and the victorious Bulgarians is in progress today at the very gates of Constantinople, while inside the city there is the wildest rioting, endangering the safety of the Christian population, according to reports from the Bulgarian front. The latest advices were that the Bulgarians were storming Tchatalja, and current rumors are that the defeated Turks are being driven in a disorganized mass into the capital. It is also rumored that rioting in Constantinople followed the attempt of a mob to seize food, the government having commandeered the whole supply. It is said the mob threatens to overcome the garrison. If this is true it is feared a general massacre will result.

VAST LOSSES IN DEAD AND WOUNDED IN WAR

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—Just how much of the original Turkish army of 200,000 under General Nazim Pasha, was mustered today behind the fortifications on the peninsula whereon Constantinople is situated, in an effort to beat back Czar Ferdinand's Bulgars, is causing speculation. In view of the disastrous Moslem reverses, it is believed he has hardly 100,000, it being estimated that 100,000 were killed and wounded in the various battles, while the Bulgarian loss is but half this number.

An Athens report states that the Salonika authorities are prepared to surrender when the Greeks approach. Constantinople denies this, saying the Greeks will surely be beaten back. Essad Pasha, the defender of Scutari, it is reported, has announced his intention to hold Scutari, even if the Sultan loses everything else.

TURKEY FORMALLY ASKS POWERS FOR PEACE

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—Turkey today formally applied to the representatives of the powers to open negotiations with the Balkan allies for an armistice. The French ambassador, spokesman for the foreign diplomats, replied that this was impossible, adding that the powers would communicate with the allies if the port would put the communication in the form of a peace proposal.

ALLIES WILL TREAT WITH SULTAN ALONE AS TO PEACE

PARIS, Nov. 4.—Fear that the Balkan allies would reject the offer of mediation was verified today. Unofficial messages from Cetinje, Athens, Sofia and Belgrade say that the allies will discuss peace terms with the sultan only. Any appeal not coming from the port will be refused.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—The reading of John J. McNamara's letters today occupied the time in the trial of the forty-seven laborites charged with transporting dynamite illegally.

John Wiley of this city had an ankle broken and cut and received severe cuts and bruises yesterday when his motorcycle struck a fence at the Santa Ana race track. Wiley was practicing for the motorcycle races to be held on the track on Thanksgiving Day, expecting to take part in those races. He had rounded the north curve of the track and was heading into the straight-way when the accident occurred.

A rider named Burbank of Olive is said to have been practicing, and had just stopped his machine on the track ahead of Wiley. Wiley came around the curve at about thirty-five miles an hour. Wiley almost got by. One foot caught on Burbank's machine and Wiley's machine was swerved into the fence. The front part of Wiley's motorcycle was badly smashed. Wiley had one foot badly cut and ankle broken. Wiley is an employee of the Richelieu market.

"The Man Who Can"

By MARION COUTHOUY SMITH Written of Theodore Roosevelt in 1908

Back in the days of strife and stress,
Read we records of mighty men,
Kings of a greatening world—no less—
Strong alike with the sword and pen.

Soldiers, poets, patriots these;
Founders were they of future states;
Sailors over the swaying seas;
Where to-day shall we find their mates?

How shall we find "the one who can?"
(That was the Saxon phrase, they say.)
Brothers, have we not found the man
Close to our hearts and lives today?

Soldier and patriot, strong of hand,
Keen of vision to know the time;
Quick and true to the hour's demand;
Poet, too, without tune or rhyme;

Poet because, through mists of sin,
He sees the best as it yet may be;
Faces evil, yet dares begin
To live the good that his soul can see.

Speech like an arrow, swift and straight;
Strength that smites to the core of wrong;
Smiles that mock but an adverse fate;
Heart of a boy, that leaps to song.

Honor scornful of life or place,
Courage brightest in sordid strife;
Such is the man whose first, best grace
Is the simple crown of a stainless life.

How shall we find "the one who can?"
(That was the noble Saxon phrase!)
Brothers, since we have known the man,
His the leadership, his the paradise!

ESCONDIDO PAPER GIVES REASONS FOR AIDING EVANS

Escondido Advance: Believing that it will be to the best interests of the people of the 11th congressional district to have Samuel C. Evans, Republican candidate for congress, represent them, the Advance wishes to say a few words in favor of his candidacy.

We have investigated Mr. Evans' public record while mayor of Riverside and are convinced that the people of this district are to be congratulated upon having a man of his ability and progressive ideas to be willing to serve them and we are certain that his work in congress will result in great good to the district. We find that for years Mr. Evans has been an earnest advocate of every social move for the betterment of humanity and that, while he is a successful business man and will attend to the commercial interests of the district with all of the ability that will be needed, he will at the same time study the real needs of the people of the country, taken as a whole. His desire to better the social and moral conditions of the working classes convinces us that we need him in congress. He will be a real friend to the "common people" and we need more of this kind of men in public life.

Then, again, he is a practical and experienced citrus grower and knows the needs of the country residents of the district. He is in favor of a protective tariff for our products. We do not believe a Democrat can go down to Washington and be treated seriously in asking his brother members of congress to retain the tariff on our products—nearly every one of which is termed a luxury—while he asks for a reduction on the products of the other sections of the United States. Mr. Evans can do this consistently and intelligently, as well, and show how a reduction on our products will result in a hardship to his constituents. His ideas on the tariff are alone sufficient reason for advocating his candidacy.

It is Mr. Evans' misfortune that he is not a resident of San Diego county, but it is impossible for him to be a resident of every county in the district. Mr. Evans assured the people of San Diego county some time ago that he will be just and fair to the needs and problems of San Diego city, and we do not see much argument in the assertion that we, of this county, should support a man simply because he happens to reside in our county. We are confident that most of the voters feel the same way about it, although one in reading the San Diego Union would imagine that everybody in San Diego was going to vote for Mr. Kettner, but an investigation among the voters of that city shows that they regard this "home candidate" talk simply a bait to catch votes which, in fact, is really all it amounts to. Mr. Evans is going to be elected, and it is poor policy for any one in this county to oppose a winner and, after he has been landed safely in office by the votes of the other counties in the district, for us to come to him and ask that he exert himself for our wants. While he will undoubtedly treat San Diego fairly we can all see that he would feel better toward us if we give him a good vote and show him that we have confidence in him. The Advance is certain that the voters of this county cannot afford to let John D. Spreckels, the San Diego Union and the Southern Pacific push of the city of San Diego name the man for the people of the 11th district to send to congress, and this is about what Mr. Kettner's election would amount to, for he is being backed solidly by the old S. P. crowd of that city.

The people of the county cannot afford to let the old S. P. push again obtain control of the politics of the county or vote for any man whose candidacy would in any way give them any prestige in politics.

Broad gauged men who stand for principle—and not walking dollar marks—are to compose congress during the coming few years; men who, while attending to the commercial interests of their respective districts, will strive earnestly to give the "under dog" a lift and make conditions better for those whose interests have been neglected. We are convinced that if we get a few men like Samuel C. Evans in congress that the hundreds of thousands of children who are now bending their backs at arduous toil in the factories of the east will be taken out and their places filled by grown men and women, better fitted to fight life's battle and the children given healthful surroundings so that they will grow into strong men and women.

Mr. Evans is a man of the very type now needed in congress. His sympathies, though he is a man of wealth, have long been with the poor and unfortunate. Both as a private citizen and as mayor of Riverside he has been active along the social and moral questions which are now at the front in our national affairs. It is genuine with him—a part of his very nature; he is one of those men who are filled with a desire to be of some benefit to others as they pass through life. The Advance feels that the voters should not neglect this chance to have him do something for them in congress now that they have the opportunity.

AMUSEMENTS

McKee Rankin

McKee Rankin, the well known character actor, heading his own company, will present at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday, Nov. 6, the Sudermann play "Magda," last presented on the coast four years ago by Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the noted English actress.

Mr. Rankin brings as leading woman of his company Margaret Drew, well known to Pacific Coast audiences because of former visits during the past several years. J. Francis Lenz whose present trip marks his first appearance on the coast, is leading man. Others of the company appearing in principal roles are Pryse Mackaye, Rose Campbell, George Berlinger and Margarete McNulty. Miss Drew is said to bring to "Magda" the advantages of delicate personal beauty of a peculiar type and the expert facility of ripe experience.

The Sudermann masterpiece, written many years ago as it was, is of particularly keen interest today in that its theme is one of the important present issues of civilization. Its theme is claimed to be the greatest sermon on equal rights for women ever preached. The story, however, is not overburdened with "lessons," and its interesting evolution is worked out in four acts with a swiftness of action and unexpectedness of climaxes calculated to give plenty of dramatic thrill.

Taxation Is Your Business

Cut This Out.

Tell Your Neighbors.

Property Owners ATTENTION

Every citizen who owns or hopes to own any real estate in California, should VOTE AND WORK AGAINST the so-called HOME-RULE TAXATION SCHEME, which is being submitted to the voters at the election of November 5th, 1912, as a proposed amendment to the State Constitution.

It Is a Single Tax Scheme in Disguise

The single taxers maintain that all ownership of land is robbery. Their plan is to have the government confiscate all the value of the land by taxing it to death. Their idea is to convert a nation of home-owners into a nation of tenants. State Controller Nye says: "If a single tax is to be established in our household, we want it to come in through the front door in broad daylight, and not after dark through a rear window which has been inadvertently left open."

Some Other Reasons Why This Amendment Should Be Defeated

It provides for the classification of property for purposes of taxation or exemption from taxes. This would permit any exemption desired. Improvements might be exempted and land taxed, factories might be exempted and dwellings taxed. Property of the "Special Interests" might be selected for exemption before any other. Any fantastic scheme could be tried.

The unsettled condition which could prevail in regard to revenue and taxation incident to the adoption of this amendment would discourage the investment of capital in real estate, retard the subdivision of large tracts of land, tend to prevent colonization and the development of irrigation projects and to injure business of every character.

Its adoption will unsettle and reduce real estate values, make the securing of loans on land more difficult, tend to increase rates of interest due to the uncertainty of laws as to taxation and create chaos generally.

It Will Do Away With the First Principles of a Just and Equitable Tax System, that all Property Shall be Taxed in Proportion to Its Value

This amendment, if carried, will so affect the integrity of our tax system that it would make municipal bonds unsalable and seriously harm the credit of the entire state.

Through a system of classification of property and exemptions it will create a fierce rivalry and competition between many towns, cities and counties for industrial enterprises by offering the bait of tax exemption of the entire plant and even land, to lure manufacturing enterprises from one locality to another. Fostering new enterprises by tax exemption is an old form of creating "Special privilege." Carl C. Plehn, Secretary of the State Commission on revenue and taxation, states:

WHEREVER IT HAS BEEN TRIED IT HAS PROVED TO BE A CLUB IN THE HANDS OF CAPITAL TO COERCE THE INDIVIDUAL COMMUNITY, AND, MOREOVER, IT TENDS TO CREATE SPECIAL PRIVILEGES WHICH WE ARE AT PRESENT STRUGGLING TO CURB OR DESTROY. IN THE INTERESTS OF EQUALITY, JUSTICE AND PEACE, THE AMENDMENT SHOULD BE REJECTED.

This amendment has been suddenly sprung on the people through the initiative, without time for intelligent study or discussion. It is not offered through the legislature, or any tax commission, and has no consideration for the needs or interest of the state revenue system.

Hasty legislation is nearly always poor legislation. On such a vitally important matter, until sure of their ground, citizens should vote "No."

This amendment is condemned, after careful consideration, by the following organizations and well-known men who have the best interests of this state at heart.

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.
The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.
City Club of Los Angeles.
California State Realty Federation.

ed Gathering at the Opera House Saturday Night

A crowd which about half filled the Opera House was on hand Saturday night to attend the meeting held under the auspices of the "Wilson Republican Club," at which the chief advertised feature was an address in favor of Wilson by Albert Johnson, nephew of the Governor.

N. A. Ulm, chairman of the Taft Republican committee, called the meeting to order. C. C. Chapman of Placentia had been scheduled to preside, but was delayed, and Mr. Ulm introduced H. C. Head, chairman of the Democratic county committee, as the chairman of the evening. Mr. Chapman arrived later and presided during the latter part of the meeting, making a short but witty speech which drew some of the most enthusiastic applause of the evening.

Mr. Johnson opened his speech with a defense of the position of the Taft Republicans in refusing to put electors on the ballot by petition. He argued that, having been deprived of their rightful place on the ballot, it would have been a surrender to adopt any other course than that taken. He devoted a large part of his time to a comparison of Wilson and Roosevelt, extolling Wilson's record on the labor question and his stand on the trusts, and condemning Roosevelt, saying he had failed to accomplish anything while in office along those lines. He predicted that Wilson will carry forty-five out of the forty-eight states.

The other speaker was William E. Smythe of San Diego, who has been heard here before. Mr. Smythe said that it was not Progressivism that he was fighting; it was Rooseveltism. "Rooseveltism," he said, "means monopoly. It means monopoly of the presidential office for Mr. Roosevelt, and the legalization of private monopoly in all the great necessities of life, a program which is openly advocated by Roosevelt.

CAUSE OF MANKIND

"It is of little matter whether any one man fails or succeeds; but the cause shall not fail, for it is the cause of mankind. We, here in America, hold in our hands the hope of the world, the fate of the coming years; and shame and disgrace will be ours if in our eyes the light of high resolve is dimmed, if we trail in the dust the golden hopes of men. If on this new continent we merely build another country of great but unjustly divided material prosperity, we shall have done nothing; and we shall do as little if we merely set the greed of envy against the greed of arrogance, and thereby destroy the material well-being of all of us."—Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Smythe said that Wilson is bound to be elected president by the largest popular and electoral plurality ever given a candidate, and aside from the merits of the case, it would be the part of wisdom for California to get in line for him, in order that she might the more gracefully accept for favors at Washington. A Bull Moose will not be able to do anything in Washington during the next four years. The two great parties which will control the government will dine off Moose—Teddy Moose, roan Moose, scrambled Moose and Moose fritcase until there is no Moose left.

The night meeting here was after a day spent in meetings at Garden Grove, Fullerton and Orange.

GOV. WILSON HAS SLIGHT ACCIDENT

Bumped His Head Against Auto
Top, Sustaining 3-Inch
Scalp Wound

PRINCETON, Nov. 4.—Governor Wilson has refused to allow photographers to photograph the court plaster which surgeons put on his head following the cutting of a 3-inch long gash in the scalp, caused by an automobile hitting a bump in the road. Dr. Carnochan said the cut was trivial and would not interfere with the campaign.

The accident disclosed the fact that Captain William McDonald, formerly a Texas ranger, has acted as Wilson's bodyguard since the shooting of Col. Roosevelt at Milwaukee. Gov. Wilson was on his way from Red Bank to Princeton early yesterday morning when the accident took place. Dr. C. G. Titus, a few blocks away, dressed the wound.

Gov. Wilson went to Paterson and Passaic for speeches today.

COLONEL LEADS IN CHURCH VOTE

Cheers Greet Result of Poll
Taken Among Members of Temple Church

Los Angeles Tribune: Colonel Roosevelt was given a rousing cheer last night at the Temple Baptist church when he led in the straw ballot taken with double the number of votes cast for the next on the list, Governor Wilson, showing that the Temple membership has followed its pastor, the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, in being a Progressive Republican.

The first straw ballot taken at a Sunday evening church service in Los Angeles proved a decisive victory for the Progressive party and its leader. The following was the result of the vote announced by Dr. Brougher: Roosevelt, 1464; Wilson, 705; Taft, 145; Debs, 45; Prohibition, 6.

The vote was taken at the opening of the service. The announcement was made at the close of the service, following an eloquent sermon dealing on political questions delivered by Dr. Brougher.

Dr. Brougher paid especial attention to the Socialists, telling them the world is not ready to adopt their doctrines and advising them to vote for some other candidate.

S. C. EVANS IS NOT SECTIONAL CANDIDATE

Riverside Press: On the desk of the writer as he prepares this editorial there is a photo of a Kettner banner at San Diego. It bears this inscription:

SAN DIEGO VS. RIVERSIDE
RACE TO WASHINGTON
NOV. 5, 1912.

VOTE FOR KETTNER

This is a fair specimen of the sort of appeals which are being made to induce San Diego people to support the San Diego candidate. So far as Mr. Evans is concerned, this effort to put him in the position of being a candidate of Riverside or any other county is unfair and unwarranted. He was induced to enter the race fully as much by the efforts of Republicans in other counties as in Riverside and he has never made any claims for support even in his own county on the ground of being a Riverside man. He knows the whole district and will represent every part of it, from Mono to the Mexican line, with impartiality and vigilance.

HARVARD RICHER FROM BIG WRECK

Gets Memorial Gifts of $1,010,
000 as Result of the Sinking of the Great Titanic

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Harvard is the first American university to receive gifts as memorials of victims of the Titanic disaster.

Mrs. George D. Widener of Philadelphia has given more than $1,000,000 to build a great library in the college yard at Cambridge in memory of her son, Harry Elkins Widener, who graduated from Harvard in 1907, and who with his father was lost when the Titanic foundered.

Another gift is that of the $10,000 fund given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Straus by their three sons—J. I., Percy S. and Herbert N. Straus—all graduates of Harvard. The income of the Straus fund is to be used to provide lectures on commercial practice and business organization in the graduate school of business administration.

The Widener gift includes not only the $1,000,000 for the great library building, but also a library of rare and extra valuable books collected by the younger Widener, for the most part the kind of books that only wealthy connoisseurs would buy. Among them are four folios of Shakespeare which were among the Locker-Lansdown collection; rare copies of the first edition of "Paradise Lost"; the Countess of Pembroke's own copy of "Arcadia" and a remarkably fine collection of first editions of Robert Louis Stevenson's works. The collection is especially strong in first editions of English literature of the 19th century enriched by inscriptions or autographs.

Roosevelt Forces Have Secured

and Tomorrow Night

The Roosevelt-Johnson forces have secured Spurgeon's hall for two meetings, one tonight and one tomorrow night. The meeting tonight will be for the discussion of the various constitutional amendments and initiative and referendum measures to be voted upon at tomorrow's election, for explaining a ballot and for hearing an address by Attorney H. L. Carnahan of Riverside.

Tomorrow night the meeting is for the purpose of hearing election returns. Chairman Jackman and Secretary Thomas have made arrangements for a full report.

Tonight's meeting will be interesting and instructive, and should draw a large crowd. The discussion of the amendments will be educational.

ORANGE COUNTY'S DUTY

Tomorrow Orange county ought not fail to come out strongly in the Republican column. During the campaign the Register has advanced its arguments for its belief that all the Republican nominees should be supported by the voters of this county. We have endeavored to be fair to the opposition. We believe we have been fair. We believe we have clearly proven that failure to elect Republicans to control in national and state affairs would be disastrous to our industries, so far as national control is concerned, and ill-advised so far as state control is concerned.

Roosevelt and Johnson are right upon the great moral issues to which the American people are aroused. They are leaders in the great battle for the betterment of humanity. They are exponents of the desire for righteousness in government, industries and home life. They are strong men, capable of doing the things they set out to do.

Their efforts and their accomplishments as heads of the government will better the condition of the masses. In that they alone hold out promises, backed by personalities that always make good.

Roosevelt and Johnson are right upon the protective tariff. Voters of every party should keep that fact in mind. It is of tremendous importance that we maintain protection of our products. We must not jeopardize them.

Orange county should give a big majority vote for S. C. Evans of Riverside, Republican nominee for congress. Evans is right upon the protective tariff. He is entitled to the votes of the people of this county for that reason, and because San Diego's selfish attitude and fight for the Democratic nominee, Kettner, makes it foolishness for any other county of the district to consider Kettner's candidacy with equanimity. This district wants a congressman to represent the entire district, not Spreckels or San Diego.

J. N. Anderson, Republican nominee for state senator, and Hans V. Weisel, Republican nominee for assemblyman, are both honorable, capable men. The Register believes it advisable to send to the legislature men in thorough sympathy with the state administration. It believes that men who are working with the administration can do more for their districts than can men who are opposed to the administration.

Orange county should give a strong majority for the Roosevelt-Johnson electors, for Evans, for Anderson and for Weisel.

To insure these majorities, let every voter who favors those candidates go to the polls tomorrow and vote. Do not wait for someone to call for you. Go of your own accord.

GETTING ELECTION RETURNS

What a long time it used to take election night to get anything tangible from the election, unless you lived in a city of some size. And even then the returns were fragmentary.

IN his business life, hats of good style, good taste, are a big asset to the young man. In his social life, such hats are a necessity. Most of our hats are made by STETSON after ideas of our own. New STETSON Hats just arrived.

Many people can recall the solemn and expectant groups that would gather at party headquarters or newspaper offices in the smaller towns.

Although the "boys" had blown in their $10 to $20 for returns, the news came slowly. A messenger boy would come in flourishing his yellow paper dispatch. The hushed groups listened expectantly. Then you were merely informed that 24 election districts in New York city gave Smith 1500 and Jones 1000, without any data for comparison to show which party was running ahead.

The crude telephones of those days were a jumble of conflicting sounds. If a dozen authentic dispatches had crawled over the telegraph wires at midnight, the waiters felt well repaid. The telephone has enormously facilitated the collection of election returns. Two presidential elections ago, there were many thousands of voting places where the news had to come by stage drivers and special teams sent out by newspapers.

Now there are comparatively few voting precincts that are not accessible by telephone.

Formerly it was the back country town that delayed giving the news, and whose verdict was anxiously awaited on a close contest. Today with the telephone, the country town results are as a whole quickly obtainable.

The thickly settled cities where there are many voters to a single precinct are now usually the last to be heard from. The laws relating to conduct of elections surround the process of counting with too much red tape. There are still many states where several days are required to complete the necessary formalities. In others the news comes with surprising quickness. In Massachusetts, for instance, there are not usually more than a score of voting precincts missing at midnight.

Except in cases where voting precincts have neither telephone nor telegraph, these delays of several days seem wholly needless.

T.R. DENOUNCES ACTS OF THE REPUBLICANS

OYSTER BAY, Nov. 4.—Learning that Abe Gruber, one of the New York Republican leaders had advised his followers to support Wilson if they didn't vote for Taft, Roosevelt today denounced Gruber, declaring his advice proves there is an alliance between the Republican party and the Democrats.

"Gruber's attitude," said the Colonel, "illustrates anew what is shown by the conduct of Penrose, Barnes, Crane and other Republicans. If they cannot keep control, they consider it next best to put Democratic bosses in control."

BOTH PROGRESSIVES AND THE DEMOCRATS CLAIM LOS ANGELES
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—Progressives and Democrats both claim Los Angeles county today. Roosevelt leaders claim that Roosevelt will receive 60 per cent of the total vote, leaving 40 per cent scattered. The Democrats claim that Wilson, because of the support of Taftites will carry the city by 5000 and the county 2000.

Result of the Bonds Election
May Not be Known Until Tomorrow

At 3 o'clock this afternoon about one-third of the registered vote of Santa Ana had been cast in the election for the proposed $1,270,000 good roads bond issue.

The vote in the outside precincts is reported as light. This afternoon there is a steady stream of women voters, and many automobiles are in use getting voters favoring the bonds to the polls.

The result may not be known before tomorrow night. Many of the outside precincts will not bring in their returns until tomorrow night when they will be brought in with the general election returns.

Arizona Expects Easy Victory
PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 4.—That votes for women will carry at the polls tomorrow is the declaration of the proponents of woman suffrage, with strong organizations in every county in the state. All the party platforms favor suffrage, and there is no real opposition. It is believed that with the aid of the Western Federation of Miners, controlling four thousand votes, suffrage will carry.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—Encouraged by the success of the women of California, Idaho and Washington, the suffragists of Oregon are confident of obtaining the ballot tomorrow. The Taxpayers' League of Portland, however, which is a fairly good barometer of politics, failed to urge the voters one way or the other. This general indifference, it is believed, may defeat suffrage, despite the thorough campaign led by Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway.

PRESIDENT TAFT

SAYS THAT IF WOODROW WILSON IS ELECTED PRESIDENT IMMEDIATELY AFTER HIS INAUGURATION MARCH 4 HE WILL CALL AN EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS TO REVISE THE TARIFF. THE ABOVE APPEARED IN THE LOS ANGELES TIMES OF NOV. 2.

Now, Mr. Republican Voter, you who have consistently voted the Republican ticket for years because it was and is the party of Progress and Prosperity, how can you follow the advice of twenty-nine men who style themselves as Republicans who meet one day and denounce the Democratic party for the position it takes on the tariff and one week later meet and endorse the Democratic candidates for President, Congress, Senate and Assembly? Don't you know that Democratic success means lower wages, lower prices for what we produce and consequently a big depreciation on the price of our lands and in many cases ruin and disaster? As consistent Republicans we cannot afford to contribute to Democratic success.

OUR LAST APPEAL TO ALL REPUBLICANS WHO BELIEVE THAT A PROTECTIVE TARIFF IS ESSENTIAL TO THE PROSPERITY OF THIS COUNTY, STATE AND NATION IS TO GO TO THE POLLS ON TUESDAY AND VOTE A STRAIGHT REPUBLICAN TICKET FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, CONGRESSMAN, SENATOR AND ASSEMBLYMAN.

EVANS APPEALS TO VOTERS OF ORANGE COUNTY TO STAY WITH HIM AND PROTECTIVE TARIFF

San Diego, Nov. 2, 1912.

To the Voters of Orange County:

I respectfully ask the support of Orange County voters next Tuesday.

I have known your county for more than twenty years, and I and many Riverside people are interested in your development and successes. Many Riverside people are property owners in your county. I am opposed in San Diego by certain interests who openly declare that they will not support any man other than a San Diego man, no matter what his politics or his ability. They tell me that that is their attitude. They say they will not support any man from Riverside, San Bernardino or Orange counties because he would be too closely allied with Los Angeles.

I do not believe Orange County voters want a congressman selected on sectional lines.

I ask you to put aside all prejudices that may have been created in your minds. You will get a square deal from me.

It is absolute folly for a Democratic nominee for congress to advocate a protective tariff on your citrus fruits, sugar and other products, when his party is pledged otherwise. His platform says the protective tariff is unconstitutional. Every leader of the Democratic party is opposed to a protective tariff.

You have been through many fights with us on this question and our friends in San Bernardino county. Don't throw over the results of years of labor and effort.

SAMUEL C. EVANS,
Republican Nominee for Congress.

Brief communications will be published under this head, provided they be signed by the author, or the author's name be sent to the editor as an evidence of good faith. However, the Editor shall be the sole judge as to the propriety of publishing any communication, and the Register assumes no responsibility for any views that may be expressed in this column.

Editor Register:—The Register's advice against the "Home Rule in Taxation Amendment" is a little surprising, since it previously had published several articles favoring this proposition. The people of California will make a vast mistake if they fail to arm themselves with this most powerful weapon against special privilege.

Consider, for instance, the great ranches. A man can tramp from San Francisco to San Diego on the land owned by hardly more than half a dozen men. Is it strange that he is they are a public menace, but there Everybody knows these estates should be subdivided; knows that they are a public menace, but there is at present absolutely no way short of violent revolution to make these men let go. If this amendment carries it will be possible to put these estates in a special classification and tax them so heavily that the owners will be glad to sell them in small parcels to settlers who will develop the land. These estates might support thousands of prosperous farmers, where now for the most part they support only thousands of half-starved cattle. Nearly all of the opposition to this measure comes from the ranch owners.

All the harbors in California are practically bottled up by private interests. This amendment is just exactly the kind of a corkscrew the people need. For example, if the owners of the harbor lands at Newport attempt to hold up the harbor project and reap the reward for the people's expenditures, the people can simply tax the harbor lands so heavily that the owners will be glad to get out of the way of progress.

One more illustration: There is in every community a class of "I Won't Workers" who cannot be persuaded to do anything for the community, but who get rich on the community-made increase in land values. The people ought to have the power to reduce the taxes on improvements and increase them on unimproved lands and lots to such an extent as will compel these people to get a hustle on and improve their holdings, or sell to somebody who will.

The Register's chief objection to this amendment seems to be that the people might experiment a little with new system of taxation. It is not time to stop the taxation of the people by irresponsible private interests and give the people power to protect themselves against those who coin the necessities of the people into dollars for themselves?

CIVICS CLUB ACTIVE

Proposed Amendments Studied, Good Roads Boosted—Clean-Up Campaign on

In spite of the rainy weather the members of the Civics Club filled the city hall last Saturday afternoon and their faithfulness was rewarded for it was an inspiring program which awaited them.

Clyde Bishop talked on the proposed amendments, speaking briefly but with great clearness of statement on each one of them and why it would or would not be a good law.

Several speakers then took up the slogan of good roads. Mr. Zimmerman's able address has been reviewed elsewhere in the Register. Postmaster Linn L. Shaw spoke of the pleasure that good roads would add to life. "I hope to see Orange county the playground of America. The Sevier's Canyon road which is now being built is in my opinion the most beautiful in Southern California," was one of Mr. Shaw's telling remarks.

Dr. Clark spoke from the health viewpoint, dwelling on the danger from jolting over rough roads to the spinal column and nervous system. "Vote for good roads and we will all smile," he said.

The Civics Club is growing rapidly both in interest and membership. A clean-up campaign that is being undertaken by the Civics Club was put under way by the distribution of slips to be used for complaint concerning premises that need cleaning up. No name has to be signed to these slips, merely the location of the neglected premises and its condition are told, and the slip or slips forwarded to either Mrs. A. J. Lawton, Mrs. G. H. Dobson or Mrs. W. L. Delmink, whose addresses are given on the slips. This prevents any ill feeling as no one is known in the transaction yet information is given that will enable the premises to be looked after by proper authorities.

Eastern Star Meeting

Election of officers will be held to-night by Hermosa Chapter, O. E. S., No. 105, and all members are urged to be present. This is justly regarded as an important meeting, as much of the success of any organization depends on its officers.

Conservatory Recital

Almost especial interest is awakened whenever a Kindergarten musicale is given at the Orange County Conservatory of Music. The demonstrations by the little tots as well as of those older ones who are so fortunate as to pursue their musical studies along the pleasurable and very interesting lines which the modern Kindergarten method follows, prove at all times thoroughly enjoyable.

On Saturday afternoon at the Conservatory Miss Carolyn Haughton presented a number of pupils in a program that held the attention of a large number of parents and friends for more than an hour. Piano solos, duets, little songs and rhythm demonstrations constituted a program of variety and genuine interest. Facility of finger technique, beautifully shaded tone, expression, memory work and self-confidence, all characteristics of

The Conservatory aims to keep up to date in everything save one. That is the outrageous and unreasonable charge made for whatever one hires done or whatever one buys, almost without exception. We would like to know just when and how this mighty wave of greed is going to end. 504 1/2 N. Main St. Main 214.

AMPHION LUNCHEON

Delightful Affair Given by Girls and Matrons of Well-Known Organization

Opening their social season with a pretty noon luncheon last Saturday in the dining room of the church, the Amphion Circle of the Congregational church entertained a number of guests in addition to the regular membership. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Hoyt Hall and Miss Celia Cotter, both of whom came down from Los Angeles.

The guests, fifty in all, were seated at a long table adorned in a color scheme of yellow. The centerpiece was half a huge pumpkin in which were massed gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums, smaller "half shells" of pumpkins filled with the same golden-hued "mums" being used over the table. Merigold favors filled with nuts, and merigold score cards continued the color motif. The artistic decorations were superintended by the table committee, Mrs. R. Raymond Miles, Miss Ava Wells and Miss May.

The five-course repast was prepared by the refreshment committee, Mesdames E. M. Nealey, Ralph Mead, F. C. Rowland, Nate Beale. The menu included orange cocktails, chicken pates, macaroni, sweet potatoes, hot rolls and celery, perfection salad and wafers, marshmallow pudding, cake, black coffee.

A happy feature of the luncheon consisted of several brief talks and the presentation of an engraved Amphion spoon to Mrs. Hoyt Hall, who was president for several years of the Amphion Circle. Mrs. S. E. Blake made the presentation address with a brief response by Mrs. Hall, who was taken completely by surprise. Mrs. Chas. H. Secombe made an impressive appeal for the taking up of mission study by the young people of the church.

The next regular meeting of the Circle will be on Thursday next at the home of Miss Cloyes, 420 West Walnut street.

Hallowe'en Lecture and Social

The every Thursday evening meeting of the Socialists in K. of P. hall on Hallowe'en was addressed by Laura Gregg Cannon, who proved an able and pleasing speaker. The hall was filled and many turned away for lack of seats.

The lecture was followed by a Hallowe'en social where ghosts and witches mingled with the crowd and "Dinah" and "Samba" were conspicuous figures. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee, cider and apples, tea and wafers were served. Dancing and fortune telling filled in the hours to midnight and at parting each one felt, apparently, that a profitable and enjoyable evening had been spent.

Bazaar and Supper

The ladies of the Infirmary church will hold their annual bazaar and supper on the afternoon and evening of Friday, November 22.

A. W. L. Will Meet
The Santa Ana chapter of the American Woman's League will hold a regular business meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the rest room of the city hall.

Pretty Party

Miss Helen Carden gave a charming Hallowe'en party last Friday night.

A Jolly Event

The C. E. Society of the First Presbyterian church held a novel Hallowe'en social last Friday evening. The jolly young people met at the church, dressed in sheets and pillow cases. Here they received partners, and were led in a merry march through back yards, plowed fields, and all sorts of spooky places, till they finally arrived at the home of Glenn Tidball, their president, where a rousing bonfire was prepared for them. Around the bonfire, they roasted wienies, ducked for apples, and told ghost stories until a late hour. A few songs were then sung and the young folks departed, everyone feeling that the evening was well spent.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Rice, Misses Nellie Bacon, Carrie Elder, Nancy Elder, Rena Stafford, Zelma Sturgeon, Marguerite Wallace, Ada Stockweather, Adeline Hill, Beale Hill, Alice Wassner, Irene Peckham, Florence Doig, Nada Woodward, Kate Kelly, Alfreda Holzgrate, Annette Deardorff, Delia Hilliard, Lila Rittner, Larsen, Jessie Files, Evaline Gall, Messrs. Pleasant Party

A party was given Saturday evening by Mrs. Leake in honor of her two sons, Samuel and Hollis, and a delightful evening was spent. Various games that created a great deal of interest were played. In the latter part of the evening refreshments were served.

Those present were Miss Edna Wilson of Balaos; Misses Mary and Nell Duggan of Huntington beach; Alice Woods, Clema Scott, Violet Campbell, Nina Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and family, of Garden Grove; Mrs. Cunningham, Trafford Watson of Olive; Leo Newton of Orange; Edward Fahey, Charles Fahey, Perley Cummings, Charles and Lester Nelson, William and Roy Heard, Russell Richardson, Fred Artz, Noel Woodward and Henry Forging.

Mrs. Reeves' Whist Party

One of the charming social events of the week end was the whist party on Friday afternoon at which Mrs. H. H. Reeves was hostess in her Spurgeon street home. Pink and white prevailed in the color scheme of decorations and refreshments, pink and white carnations being the fragrant flowers employed in adorning tables and parlors. The attractive card tables were metamorphosing gown of pink, and her charming niece, Miss Mary Horton, was costumed in dainty white.

Monogram tally cards were used in the progressive whist games. A handsome hand embroidered centerpiece, the work of Mrs. Reeves, was awarded Mrs. Max Reinhaus for high score, the second prize, a box of pink writing paper, going to Mrs. John Wehrly. Mrs. L. L. Shaw was delighted with the dainty pink dusting cap with which she was consoled for having low score.

The card tables were metamorphosed into individual gifting tables at the end of the games, and a delicious three course collation was served by the hostess and Miss Horton.

The guests at this pleasant affair included Mesdames Geo. Balderston, Max Reinhaus, L. L. Shaw, A. A. Bartlett, L. L. Whitson, John W. Tubbs, W. L. Tubbs, O. F. Frank and Chas. Remsburg, Emory Ratcliffe, Arthur Pease, Henry Diers, J. E. Tilton, James Roberts, Carl Stock, John Wehrly, W. L. Grubb, Wilbur Palmer, A. A. Avery, W. E. Old Maids' Convention

Amusement by the yard is looked for at the "Old Maids' Convention," to be given tomorrow night at the temple Theater, under the auspices of the W.R.U.

'At the Normans'

Miss Rosamond Norman entertained about twenty-eight freshmen of the high school last Friday night at a Hallowe'en party. Decorations and refreshments were of Hallowe'en character, and a ghost greeted the guests. The principal entertainment of the evening was a take-off on an athletic meet during which many amusing stunts were brought off by the young men of the party.

McFadden-Miller

A very simple ring ceremony, pronounced by Rev. B. T. Corey of Orange, united Miss Iva Myrtle Miller and William A. McFadden in marriage on last Saturday afternoon. The marriage took place at 4:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miller on French street, in the presence of the immediate families of the principals.

Miss Hutoqua Hoessler and Mrs. W. B. Snow of Santa Ana and Joe Coberly of Los Angeles were the only guests present outside of the two families. Mrs. W. B. Snow played Mendelssohn's wedding march and the ceremonial took place in a bower of palms and ferns and yellow chrysanthemums. The same flowers and greenery were used in the adornment of all the rooms.

The bride was gowned in white charmeuse and carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony, the Dragon served a wedding dinner in the dining room, where the decorative scheme was preserved in table appointments, including the yellow shaded candelabra and the chrysanthemums that were clustered in a vase in the center of the bride's cake. Later Mr. and Mrs. McFadden motored to the Hotel Alexandria, Los Angeles, in company with Miss Hoessler and Mr. Coberly. On Sunday morning they left for the north for a honeymoon trip of two weeks, during which they will visit Del Monte, San Francisco, San Jose and other points. They will be at home after Jan. 1 at their home on Lemon Heights, East Seventeenth street.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McFadden are well known. The groom is the son of the late Archie McFadden and Mrs. McFadden. The bride, who, like her husband, is a graduate of the Santa Ana high school and of Stanford University, and has been a successful teacher in the Orange schools. They will have the best wishes of many friends.

specifically and in detail just what we propose to do. Not since the days of Abraham Lincoln has there been any public document in America comparable with the Progressive platform. I urgently ask every voter in the United States to read that platform this very day, ponder over it, and tomorrow to cast his vote, having in mind what is said in that platform. It does not contain a promise which ought not to have been made. It does contain every promise which, in view of our present condition, ought to be made. Every promise it contains can be kept. If we are given the power every promise which it contains will be kept.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Another very interesting Athena Club meeting was held Wednesday after school. The club this year is trying the plan of having a faculty member or some prominent outsider give a short talk at each meeting. Principal McMath represented the faculty Wednesday. The program was up to the usual high standard and was composed of the following numbers:

"Researches Being Made in Regard to Unrecorded History"—Mr. McMath.

Vocal Duet—Marjorie McGee and Winifred Riusser.

Reading—Georgia Smith.

Vocal Solo—Miss Terrell.

Debate, "Resolved, that women should not follow the dictates of Fashion." Affirmative, Gailen; Finley and Louise Grubb; negative, Stella Nisson and Helen Roberts.

Piano Solo—Helen Neff.

Sophie Hardy and Selwyn Sharp were winners of first and second places, respectively, in the tryout debate held Thursday evening. These two debaters will represent Santa Ana High School in the county league debate with Anaheim November 15.

Superintendent Cranston and Messrs. Phillips and Nard of the faculty judged the tryout.

Mr. Armstrong, of the Alameda schools, spoke to the high and grammar school teachers last Wednesday afternoon in the high school building. His subject was "How to Teach Reading."

Another helpful and instructive lecture, or series of lectures, rather, are those being given by Miss Catland, the school librarian, to the freshmen, on "How to Use the Library."

The school yells and songs have been published in book form and may be obtained at the office. No student can have an excuse for not knowing the yells and songs and for not using them at the school contests.

Enthusiastic yells and songs opened a wide awake assembly meeting yesterday morning. Mr. McMath spoke on "School Spirit," not only at the games but on the street and everywhere.

The students responded generously to a call for a free-will offering to defray the doctor's fees of Malcolm Tedford, who was injured in the San Diego game. Tedford is back at school but will be missed in the game this afternoon with Long Beach.

Coach Ratcliffe reviewed the football situation; exhibits A and B will probably be forced to fight the hardest this afternoon of any game this season.

To raise money with which to buy statuary and decorations for the high school buildings, the art department will sell soda pop and sandwiches at the game this afternoon.

Y.M.C.A. MEETING TO BE HELD TO-NIGHT

One of Regular Weekly Series;
Prof. J. A. Cranston Will Give Evening's Address

This evening at the Congregational church the fourth of the series of Monday evening meetings in connection with the Y.M.C.A. will be held.

Superintendent J. A. Cranston of the city schools will speak on the topic, "Bible Study as Related to the Public Schools."

Mr. Cranston needs no introduction to the young men of the city, as he is very well known. He is a very entertaining speaker, especially on subjects relating to the public schools, Bible study, the welfare of the young men and the Y.M.C.A.

There will probably be other experienced and interesting speakers on live topics helpful to the lives of young men.

There ought to be a good number present at this meeting. Every member try to get out and bring another fellow with you.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place," is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage eat" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair-tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Rowley Drug Company.—Advertisement.

Women and Press Will Kill Race Track Gambling

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Overwhelming defeat of the initiative measure reviving horse racing in California is predicted in tomorrow's election. Although the petition carried more signatures than any other measure, it is considered that it is certain to be killed by woman voters. The bill is further hampered by the lack of newspaper support.

BOTTOM WENT OUT IN EIGHTH INNING

Santa Ana Baseball Team Defeated Lou Groumans of Los Angeles 8 to 3.

Santa Ana, 8; Lou Groumans, 3.

The above figures tell the story of the diamond struggle between the Lou Groumans and the local boys. For eight innings it was as good a game as the most particular fan could ask, but it seems that the bottom fell out of things. The locals landed on the visiting slabster for about seven hits and five scores.

On the other hand, Brownie West kept the visitors safe at all times, with the good support of his teammates.

It was in the fourth that Schultz got the big hit of the day. It was a home run over the left field fence. Schultz also was one of the stars of the game both in fielding and with the stick.

"Bake" Stevens still continues to improve and with every game the big fellow looks to be getting faster. And it is said that "Bake" is one of the best semi-professional catchers in the business. At the stick yesterday he rapped the pill for three long hits, two of which were doubles.

"Art" Freeman was also a bright spot with the stick. He secured three bingles.

Every man on the team secured a hit except Scott, local third sacker, substituting for Glenn Callen, who is sick. Dubois, Berger, Brown and Artie all tied with one each. This is the fourth straight game for the locals. The line-up:

Lou Grouman	P	Santa Ana	Brown
Merror	C	Stevens
Edwards	1B	Callen
Hough	2B	Freeman
Schultz	3B	Scott
Lind	SS	Artie
Hogan	LF	Schultz
Stewart	CF	Dubois
Worthington	RF	Berger

Flagged Train With Shirt

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at all druggists.—Advertisement.

STOMACH SOUR? GOT INDIGESTION ALSO?

"Pape's Diapepsin" Makes Up-set Stomachs Feel Fine in Five Minutes

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapepsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite, but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.—Advertisement.

BASKETBALL TEAMS PLAYED TO A TIE

ANAHEIM, Nov. 4.—Anaheim and Fullerton battled to a tie in their first basketball clash Friday afternoon. The score was 25 to 25. This was simply a practice game, and provided the occasion for a good workout for the regulars and substitutes of both teams. During the first half of play the second teams went at each other in lively style. Fullerton played two entirely different teams during this interval, while Anaheim used six of the second best men. The Red and White neighbors proved too lively for the locals in this period, and led in the scoring by five points. The standing at the end of the first half was 15 to 10, with Fullerton on the long end.

During the second half the Red and White boys increased their lead to about twelve points before the regular team from Anaheim got started. This handicap was slowly overcome until near the end of the game the score was tied. From this point on the game was nip and tuck, ending even. During this half the best of the Blue and Gold piled up fifteen points, while the pick of Fullerton could only obtain ten, just the reverse of the score of the first half. Cecil Coombs, the freshman proxy, showed great form in the first period of play by clearly outplaying everyone on both sides. Carl Kelley was there at throwing fouls. He scored six of the ten points won in that half by sliding the free throws through in reliable style.

Most of the Fullerton boys who played as regulars were on that team last year and will probably represent their school this year. The regular line-up was:

Beebe	Forward	Ortego
Fergus	Guard	Welton
Elliot	Center	Hale
Miller	Guard	Miller
Hemmerling	Forward	Stewart

The game was fast and exciting throughout, but ended rather unsatisfactorily for both sides. Being only a practice game, the tie was not played off. A return game will be played later to settle which is the best.

WILSON AND PENSIONS (Los Angeles Tribune)
Editor The Tribune: Hoke Smith of Georgia wrote to Woodrow Wilson asking him to state how he stood on the pension question. Wilson's reply is as follows:

"Will say in answer to your inquiry as to pensions that I am very much opposed to the great expense in the increase of pensions. I am not in favor of any one drawing a pension who is financially able to take care of himself. I am in favor of all old soldiers, who are not able to work and have not means to take care of themselves, being sent to the Soldiers' Home in the state in which they live. I think that all of those who are able to take care of themselves should be dropped from the rolls. If I should be elected I will do all in my power to keep the expenses of the government down to the lowest notch. As to the confederate soldiers, I am in favor of each state passing a bill to pension all of those that are not able to take care of themselves."

This was taken from a newspaper printed in Georgia.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

There were few changes on the market yesterday. Watermelons are no longer quoted and are practically out of season. The demand for bananas was very good, and prices ranged between 4 and 5 cents. Apple receipts were 8422 boxes.

A car of seedless raisins came in and they were bringing 4 1/2 to 5 cents a pound. The demand is good, as prices are low this season as compared with last, when quotations were from 6 1/2 to 7 cents a pound. The demand for all varieties of dried fruit is much better than it was a few weeks ago. Large quantities of cured peaches, apricots, figs, pears and apples are coming on the market.

Onion receipts were heavy—2400 sacks. Prices were very low. Potatoes were a little firmer; 2447 sacks came in. The receipts of beans and sweets were 483 and sixty-eight sacks, respectively.

CHAMPIONSHIP LONG BEACH'S

Santa Ana Lost the Football Game Last Saturday by a
Score of 6 to 0

In one of the best football games played here in a season or two, last Saturday Long Beach High School defeated the Santa Ana High School, and thereby established its right to claim the Southern California championship in the old style of football. The score was 6 to 0. Santa Ana ought to have had the game.

The winning team cannot assert claim to playing the best football. Santa Ana ought to have won, but did not.

The first three quarters of the game developed no scores. Santa Ana had the best of the play. Her team made better gains, blocked the opponent's play in good shape, but could not get within scoring distance. Santa Ana's players were clearly in better physical condition than the visitors, and ought to have played a fast game, but even if that had been programmed the slowness of the officials in making decisions interfered. "Time out" was a regular play, and every time it happened it worked to the advantage of the Long Beach men. Both teams were penalized frequently. About every fourth or fifth play called for a fine.

In the fourth quarter, Santa Ana had the ball close to her own goal. Failing to make yards, Quarterback West fell back for a punt for Santa Ana. The ball went low from his shoe, struck End Hayward of Long Beach and bounced back toward Santa Ana's line. Hayward got the ball and crossed the line, West throwing him too late to stop the score. Failing to kick the goal, the score stood 6 to 0 in favor of Long Beach.

With but seven minutes left to play, Santa Ana rallied in brilliant fashion, and with some fine line plunging by Barker, Smith, West and Morrison the ball was worked down to within a few feet of a touchdown.

It was an exciting finish. Time was down almost to seconds. Santa Ana had four tries to make the short gain. Long Beach put up a splendid fight. Two bucks failed to make a yard. A forward pass was tried, and failed. Another plunge was put into motion, but Barker went up against a brick wall, and the game was over.

Second Team Won

The big game was preceded with a lively match between the second teams of the two high schools. Santa Ana took the game by a 6 to 0 score. It was a well earned victory.

VARIETY OF ANSWERS IN MISPELLED AD. CONTEST

Last Friday's Alphabetical Contest of misspelled words brought fourth a greater variety of answers than usual.

The winners were Mrs. Glen Breeding, 706 East Pine street and C. H. Wilson, 828 North Bristol street.

The misspelled words occurred in C. Y. Martin's ad. at the head of the list and in Petersen's ad., the words being guaranteed, "instead of" "guaranteed," and "science," instead of "science." Through a typographical error in our composing room, "framing" was misspelled with two "f's" in Geo. S. Thacker's ad., so the coupons giving "framing" as a misspelled word have been counted correct. However, the prizes will be given by C. Y. Martin and Louis Petersen and not Geo. S. Thacker.

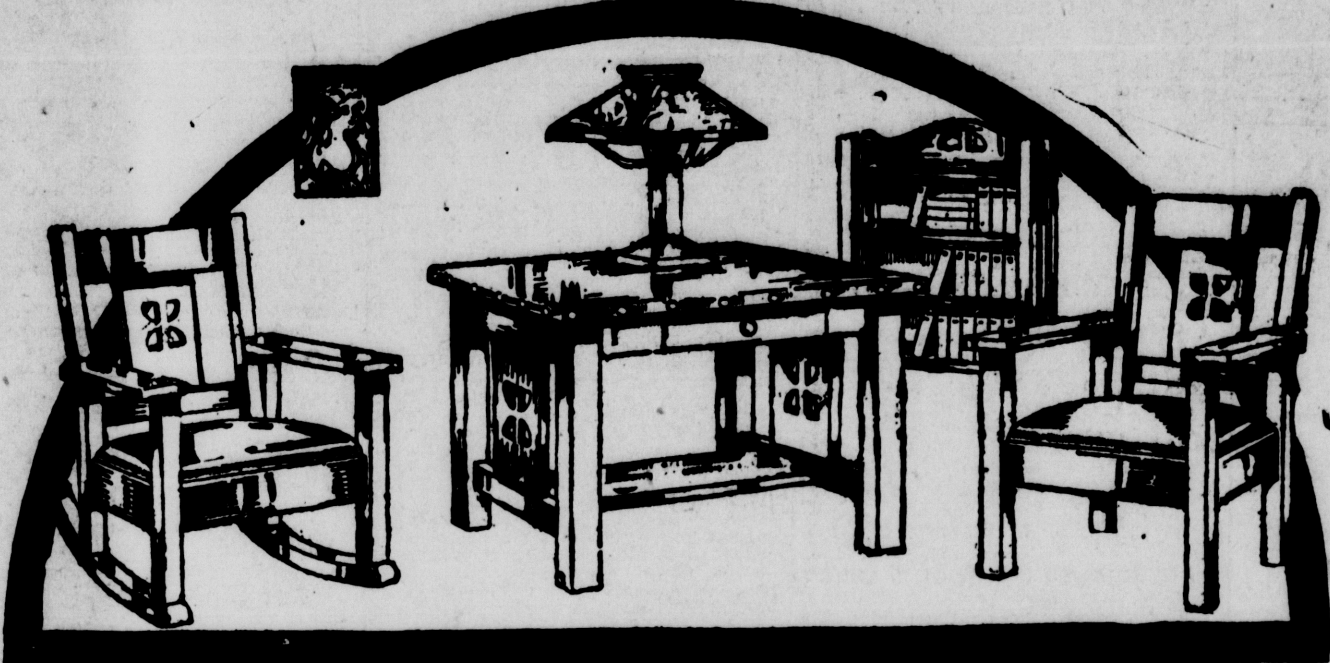

One contestant thought "children" was spelled with an "o" in the Santa Ana Sanitarium Treatment Rooms' ad. because the "e" was not perfectly clear and several thought "moulding" was not correct unless spelled "moulding."

On the Proposed
"Home Rule in Taxation" Amendment

It's the Eighth
and Longest Proposal on the Ballot

It is the opening wedge for Single Tax and was placed on the ballot through the efforts of Single Taxers.

It provides for classification and exemption of property that must lead to injustice and confusion and the creation of new special privileges.

It is directly opposed to California's agricultural interests, which are the foundation of California's prosperity.

It will depreciate the value of all local bonds outstanding and make it well nigh impossible to market bond issues of the future.

It opens a field for experiment in taxation, which may seriously affect the school revenues of counties, cities and districts.

It will discourage the investment of outside capital and retard the development of California's most valuable resources.

It offers not a single plan of taxation for county, city or district. It merely affords opportunity to tear down existing methods of raising local revenue.

This amendment has been condemned by the following organizations:

ABOUT QUARTER OF INCH OF RAIN FALLS

Last night .22 inch of rain fell, making a total of .98 inch for the season. Last year at this time 1.23 had fallen, with the next rain coming January 2.

A good rain now will do more good than harm. The sugar beets still in the field will suffer. Beans have been harvested. Growing crops, such as celery and winter vegetables, would be benefited.

SHOT FRIEND, NOT AN ENEMY

Frank Holguan's Aim Through
Window Was Bad, so Saragosa
Escaped Injury

Frank Holguan's aim was bad yesterday. Perhaps it was because his hand and head were unsteady from too much liquor. He intended to kill Saragosa, but instead he shot his friend, Frank Soto, through the shoulder.

There was a celebration of some kind at Saragosa's house near the Santa Ana river. Holguan and Soto, who live on West Fifth street the first house west of the Santa Ana Steam Laundry, were among the guests.

During the course of the festivities, Holguan and the host, Saragosa, got their friendship wires crossed, and Holguan conceived the idea that it was necessary for him to end Saragosa's existence on this earth. Holguan went out into the yard and thought it over, and the more he thought the more certain he was that he wanted to kill Saragosa. So Holguan took out his revolver, went to the window and took aim at Saragosa.

The bullet went wide of its mark, and entered Soto's shoulder at the back. Holguan thought it was time for him to leave, which thought was quickly put into action. Soto was taken to the county physician's office, and the bullet was removed from underneath the skin of the fore part of the shoulder. Soto will recover. As yet the officers have been unable to recover Holguan.

Holguan was arrested about a week ago for being intoxicated, and paid a fine of $5 to City Recorder Willson. Soto is a plasterer.
